

JEREMY KEWLEY

Jeremy Kewley began working in the entertainment industry at the age of 14 and has gone on to make his living as a professional actor, performer, writer and producer. He made his acting debut in Fred Schepisi's AFI award-winning motion picture "The Devil's Playground" (1975), followed by "Mad Dog Morgan" (1976) opposite Dennis Hopper and Jack Thompson. He has worked and performed in Australia, New Zealand, England, Germany and the US and has been constantly employed in nearly all areas of the performing arts – film & television, stage, music theatre, theatre restaurants, radio, film production, casting, writing, teaching, audience warm-ups for television shows & events, hosting corporate presentations, running trivia nights and, with his passion for Australian history, hosting various walking history tours.

Submitted for the AACTA AWARD for Best Supporting Actor for Underbelly Files: Tell Them Lucifer Was Here (2012)
Submitted for the AFI AWARD for Best Supporting Actor for City Homicide: The First Stone (2009)

"I've always known Kewley was a good actor ... solid. But until last night I never knew he was a great actor, inspirational and astonishing. He has such gravitas on stage. So commanding. It is thrilling to watch him in his element. I feel honoured to have been there for that performance. This is theatre at its finest; an astonishing collaboration of text, performance and direction.
Buy, steal, borrow, beg - do whatever you need to do to get a ticket to "Equus".
Stage Whispers (August 2013)

"Kewley gives a beautifully understated performance ... he has the uncanny ability to summon up the genuine pain of someone experiencing a nervous breakdown at will ... in "Doomsday Devices" Kewley proves his status as one of Melbourne's most compelling stage actors"
Art News Portal (March 2014)

"Jeremy Kewley is a powerful and exciting presence and had the audience in the palm of his hand from the opening moment, then clutched on and never let us go. This is an actor at the top of his craft and his scenes with Belinda Misevski in "Flesh Wound" were stunning in their power and dynamic"
Arts Hub (October 2013)

JEREMY KEWLEY

TEACHER - MENTOR

Between 2019 and 2023 Jeremy Kewley ran a series of “Radio Play Script Writing Workshops” in Mansfield.

Between 2007 and 2014 he ran 14 separate “Acting Essentials” short courses in Melbourne focusing on the basic essentials of acting and the film and television industry. The male and female students that attended these weekend classes ranged in age from 17 to 70 years old. Over the years, through his courses and his mentoring, many of Jeremy’s students have gone on to gain representation from leading Australian Theatrical Agents, gained professional work both in Australia and overseas, and/or been accepted into some of Australia’s most prestigious drama training schools, including the National Institute of Dramatic Art (NIDA) and the Western Australia Academy of performing Arts (WAAPA). Some examples:

Mitchell Hope began working in the US, starring in Disney’s 2015 musical “Descendants” (2015), “Descendants 2” (2017) and “Descendants 3” (2019), “Let It Snow” (2020), the Australian film “Love You Like That” (2020), the US film “Don’t Make Me Go” (2022) and the thriller “Killer Whale” (2025) (“I definitely recommend Jeremy’s course to anyone looking to further their understanding of the industry. He is a good friend and a great teacher, and an incredible contact to have. Jeremy won’t say it, but he has a lot to do with why I’m where I am today!” – Mitchell Hope)

Belinda Jombwe flew from Sydney to Melbourne every weekend, for six weekends, to take part in the course in 2010 and then won the lead role in the play “My Wonderful Day” at Sydney’s Ensemble Theatre, before touring Australia in the critically acclaimed hit stage production of “War Horse”. On the big screen she’s appeared in “Interceptor” (2022) and “Five Blind Dates” (2024) and on television in “Apples Never Fall” (2024).

With no previous acting experience, Andrew Morley (and his sister) completed the “Acting Essentials” Course in 2009 and within two months he moved to Queensland to play the lead role in the Network Ten series “Lightning Point”. He then joined the cast of Channel Seven’s “Home & Away” for two years (2013-2015), followed by two years as ‘Jack Callaghan’ on the “Neighbours” television series (2016-2018). (“These were some of the most enjoyable classes, of any nature, that I have taken in my life! As a direct result of these classes, and with Jeremy’s continued advice, support and friendship, I have scored some really good roles” – Andrew Morley)

Jake Ryan was a student in the very first “Acting Essentials” short course in 2007, and has gone on to play major roles in such series as “Underbelly: Razor”, “Wentworth”, “Fat Tony & Co”, the 2016 “Wolf Creek” television series and the films “The Great Gatsby” and “The Sapphires” before becoming a series regular on “Home & Away” playing ‘Robbo Reid’ from 2017-2020 and “Territory” in 2024. Jake played the lead in the 2019 NZ film “Savage” and appears in feature films including “Fear Below” (2025) and “Primitive War” (2025).

Since completing the “Acting Essentials” course in 2011, Rohan Mirchandaney has gone on to play the recurring role of Dr Rudy Ali in the television series “House Husbands; a regular role in the first series of ABC-TV’s “Mystery Road” (2018), appeared in the feature film “Hotel Mumbai” (2018), the ABC-TV series “The Newsreader” and played one of the lead roles in the hit NBC television series “La Brea” (2021-2024).

After playing Castus in the US series “Spartacus: Blood & Sand”, 2010 student Blessing Mokgohloa went on to appear in the 2016 cable sci-fi television series “Hunters”, starred as Rowan Mitri in the 2017 ABC-TV series “Pulse”; had a recurring role in “Harrow” and features in the US series “Cowboy Bebop” (2021) and the Australian series “Swift Street” (2024).

Ned Napier went straight from Jeremy’s course in 2012 into the lead role of the ABC-TV series “Worst Year Of My Life, Again”, followed by a guest lead in an episode of “The Doctor Blake Mysteries” in 2015 on ABC-TV before being accepted into the three year full-time drama course at NIDA in Sydney.

(“I would highly recommend this class not only for those just starting out in the acting business, but also for those who need to learn more about the industry than just the craft of acting. Jeremy is a wonderful person and will happily go out of his way to get the best result possible from all of his students. Since taking this course Jeremy has continued to help me to prepare for auditions and screen tests” – Ned Napier).

Aaron Jakubenko played the lead role in the 2016 feature film “The Spirit of the Game” and starred in the US series “Spartacus”, “Roman Empire: Reign of Blood” and “The Shannara Chronicles”. He appeared in the 2017 US telemovie “A Man For Every Month”; starred in the 2018 Australian Netflix series “Tidelands”, the thriller movie “Great White” (2021) and stars in the American movies “Head Count” (2023) and “Day of the Dead” (2025).

Jacqui Purvis won a number of awards for her lead performance in the 2017 telemovie “Undertow” before playing Melissa Lohan in eighteen episode of “Neighbours” in 2019. She was then cast in the AACTA-nominated independent feature film “A Lion Returns” in 2020 and was a regular cast member of “Home and Away”, playing the role of Felicity Newman from 2021-2024.

Lucas Linehan worked opposite Jeremy three times – first in the short film “Beat” (2012) followed by the television series pilot “Staffroom” (2012) then the feature film “Monster Pies” (2013). He also starred in the independent feature film “Metaffliction” (2013). From 2015-2017 Lucas studied drama full-time at NIDA in Sydney. Since graduating he’s appeared in the feature film “Filterphonic” (2019); played Constable Milbee in “Troppo” (2022-24) on ABC-TV; Uncle Charlie in Nickelodeon’s “Rock Island Mysteries” (2022-2024); and the recurring role of Tex Wheeler on “Home and Away” (2022-2023). On stage, he has appeared in award-winning productions of “When The Rain Stops Falling”, “Open-Eye Discount Epiphanies”, and as Clarry Fowler in “The Shifting Heart” for White Box at Sydney’s Seymour Centre.

Oliver Edwin, Addam Bramich and Tom Carmody are now all working in America ...

Oliver appeared alongside Woody Harrelson in “L.B.J.” (2016) and guest starred in the series “Divorce” (2018).

Tom appears in the feature film “The Meinkoff Method” and was Ben Mendelsohn’s personal assistant on “Captain Marvel (2019).

Addam starred opposite Oscar-winner J.K. Simmons in “A Boy Called Sailboat” (2108) and opposite Russell Crowe in “Poker Face” (2023), directed by Crowe himself, along with the film “Head Count” (2023).
